2024 NOMINATIONS TO THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Torri Williams (since 2023) - After completing her Bachelor's degree in Women's Studies and Psychology with a Concentration in Race, Gender and Ethnicity at Bowling Green State University, Torri began her career in social and community service. She serves as a community organizer, activist and social advocate and works passionately to build connectivity and amplify voices that are often underrepresented. Torri also serves on numerous boards and committees. When she is not serving the community at large, you can find her in her most important role as the Coordinator of Chaos: a mom.

Evan Gilmore (since 2023) - Evan is excited to bring his passion for community engagement, media expertise, and unique skill set to his role on the board of Afena Credit Union in Marion, Indiana. With a strong belief in the power of individual strengths and abilities, Evan is dedicated to identifying and mobilizing the distinct assets in individuals, groups, and teams to achieve their personal and professional goals.
